A hundred years from now, it will not matter what kind of car I drove, what kind of house I lived in, how much money I had in the bank...but the world may be a better place because I made a difference in the life of a child.

Forest Witcraft

At the end of the day, the most overwhelming key to a child's success is the positive involvement of parents.

Jane D. Hull

Parents are the ultimate role models for children.
Every word, movement and action has an effect.
Bob Keeshan

By loving them for more than their abilities we show our children that they are much more than the sum of their accomplishments.

Eileen Kennedy-Moore

The activities that are the easiest, cheapest, and most fun to do – such as singing, playing games, reading, storytelling, and just talking and listening – are also the best for child development.

Jerome Singer

If a child is to keep alive his inborn sense of wonder, he needs the companionship of at least one adult who can share it, rediscovering with him the joy, the excitement, and the mystery of the world we live in.

Rachel Carlson

Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire.

William Butler Yeats

The aim of education should be to teach us rather how to think, than what to think - rather to improve our minds, so as to enable us to think for ourselves, than to load the memory with thoughts of other men.

Bill Beattie

Every child has a different learning style and pace.
Each child is unique, not only capable of learning but also capable of succeeding.

Robert John Meehan

If the child is not learning the way you are teaching, then you must teach in the way the child learns.

Rita Dunn

A good teacher must be able to empathize what it must be like to struggle to learn something that may have come so easily to them.

Robert John Meehan

It shouldn't matter how slowly a child learns as long as we are encouraging them not to stop.

Robert John Meehan

Great teachers empathize with kids, respect them, and believe that each one has something special that can be built upon.

Ann Lieberman

Never help a child with a task at which he feels he can succeed.

Maria Montessori

The greatest sign of success for a teacher... is to be able to say, 'The children are now working as if I did not exist.'

Maria Montessori

A student's progress should be measured in terms of the questions they are asking, not merely by the answers that they are reciting.

Robert John Meehan

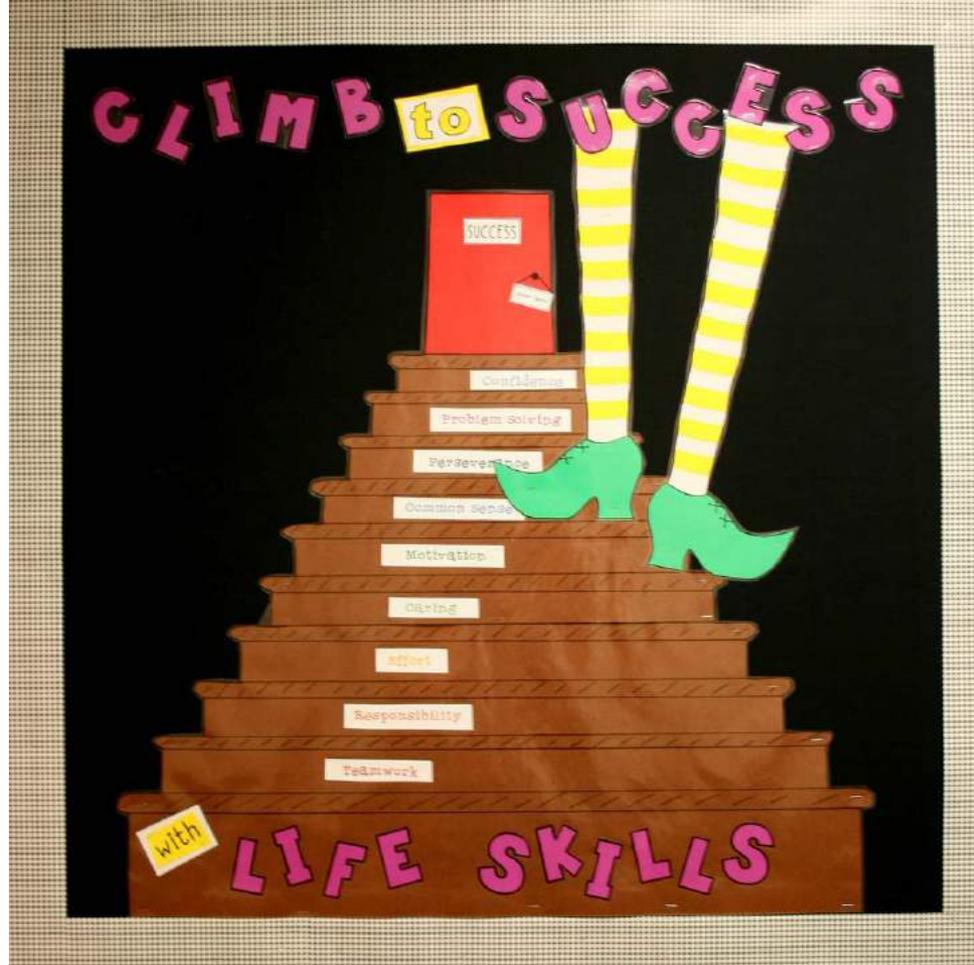

If I ran a school, I'd give the average grade to the ones who gave me all the right answers, for being good parrots. I'd give the top grades to those who made a lot of mistakes and told me about them, and then told me what they learned from them.

R. Buckminster Fuller

The habits we form from childhood make no small difference, but rather they make all the difference.

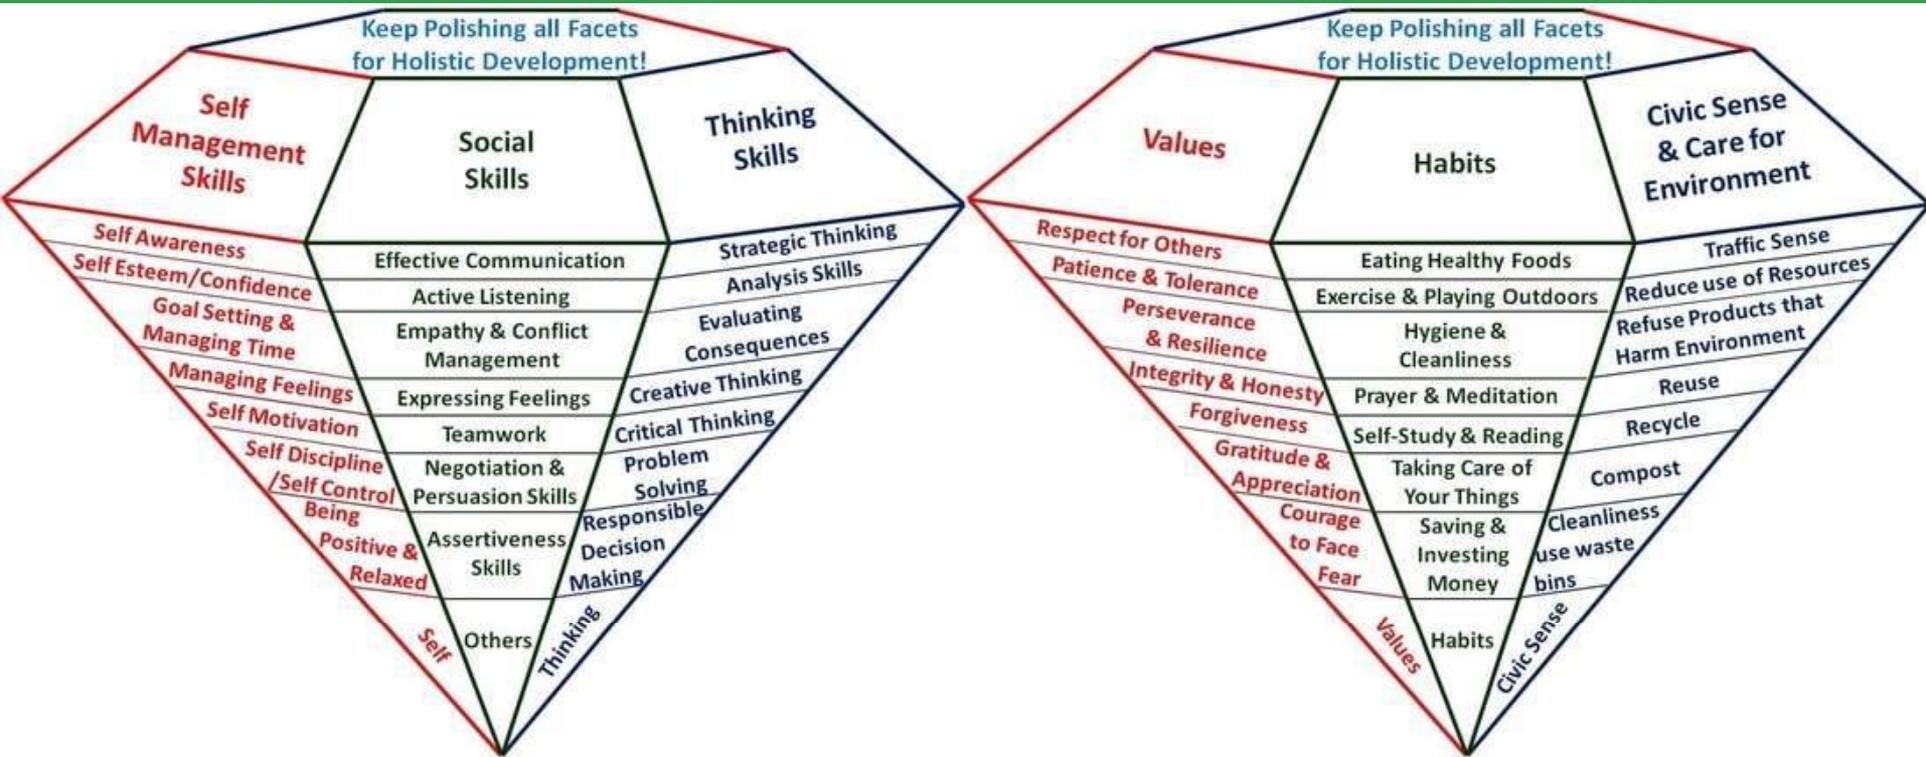

Aristotle

Since the jobs that our preschoolers will do probably don't exist yet, our priority is to teach them the skills to adapt and inquire and question and cooperate... life skills.

Caroline Bellouse

Diamond Model for the holistic development of Children
